As the Orient Community Library eases back into youth programming, the summer will start off with the following programs for your child/children to enjoy:

Blank Park Zoo, Wednesday, June 2, 11:30am

The Blank Park Zoo is traveling again! And is coming to the Orient Community Library Wednesday, June 2, at 11:30am. The Program Theme is Tales of Tails. Learn the different purposes animals have for their tails and what they can look like. No cost. No registration necessary. Because of COVID-19 guidelines, only two animals will be visiting the library, audience members will not be allowed to touch the animals and there must be a minimum of 10' between audience members and zoo staff and animals.

Orient Library Summer Camp #1, Monday, June 14, 9:30m-12:00pm

K-3rd graders will be able to participate in this Summer Youth Camp presented by the Adair County ISU Extension and Outreach Monday, June 14, 9:30am-12:00pm. Campers will learn all about what seeds need to grow, how they travel and what seeds we eat. No cost. Must fill out Registration/Medical form in the Summer Youth Camps 2021 Program Book (pages 7-10) available at library, www.orient.lib.ia.us or <https://www.extension.iastate.edu/adair/home/adair-county> (at bottom of page) and turn it into the Extension Office in Greenfield or Orient Community Library by June 7.

Orient Library Summer Camp #2, Monday, June 14, 12:30pm-3:30pm

4th-8th Graders will be able to participate in this Summer Youth Camp presented by the Adair County ISU Extension and Outreach Monday, June 14, 9:30am-12:00pm. Campers will explore how tiny seeds grow into the fruits and vegetables that we eat everyday. No cost. Must fill out Registration/Medical form in the Summer Youth Camps 2021 Program Book (pages 7-10) available at library, www.orient.lib.ia.us or <https://www.extension.iastate.edu/adair/home/adair-county> (at bottom of page) and turn it into the Extension Office in Greenfield or Orient Community Library by June 7.
